:: FOREWORD. ::

These are the very interesting records of a very interesting Association. The Broughton Catholic Charitable Society is a native growth of Lancashire piety and good-fellowship; and, as such, has not only survived the changes of many succeeding generations, but has steadily increased its membership from year to year. It is surely noteworthy that, while innumerable other organisations have sprung up among our rural and industrial population for laudable, but purely material benefits, such as thrift, insurance, co-operative advantages, and such like, the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society, as its name indicates, has existed only to distribute alms and to secure the constant celebration of Masses for its living and deceased members. No less noteworthy is the vitality the Society displays at its great annual gathering on Whit.-Tuesday, when all available members, lay and clerical, are drawn together, in bonds of true brotherhood, by their common enthusiasm for the objects of their Association. Social reformers, who are looking to a revival of the Guild spirit for curing the disease of class warfare, may profitably study the object-lesson provided by our Society. It was just out of such religious combinations that the medieval Guilds came into being; and the secret of their success was the sedulous cultivation of the religious ties out of which they were born. As surely as the soul is the life of the body, so surely is Religion the life of our social institutions.

I count it a privilege to bestow upon the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society the same tokens of esteem, and to invoke upon it the same Blessing, as my venerated predecessors and other distinguished prelates.

ARCHBISHOP OF LIVERPOOL.

CHAPTER I.

THE Broughton Catholic Charitable Society was established on May 6th, 1787. It is nowhere recorded in print what the actual cause of its establishment was, but there is a tradition that it was at a time when the district was visited by a severe epidemic of smallpox. Many of the smaller farmers in the neighbourhood fell victims, leaving behind them widows and often a number of young children. It was to assist these with money, and to work their land for them, that the more fortunate members of the farming community clubbed together, and raised subscriptions amongst themselves for the purpose. From this the idea grew of meeting regularly in order to assist the living, who were in distress, and to have Masses and Prayers said for the dead. These Meetings were at different farm houses, the first of which was Cross House, so called from the fact that one of the old way-side crosses was built into the wall of the house. Another place of meeting was Crow Hall. From these informal meetings, the idea arose of forming a society, and as the Four Lane Ends at Broughton offered a most central position, the first meeting was held there.

Before giving the old title page and the other details of the original Rules, it is interesting to note, that so far as we know, only one copy of these exists. Accordingly, the pages are here reproduced partly in fac-simile and partly in type ; though it is necessary to have the old leaflet before one to realise the quaintness of the original. It is a pamphlet of eight pages, of which the seventh contains information, which, at the present date, runs to over 100 pages ; there were then 20 deceased members, now there are over 7,000 ; the sum spent each year in charity was originally £6, now it is £260, and the total amount given in charity since the beginning of the Society is nearly £20,000.

As in the case of the original Rules, so throughout the volume, I have endeavoured to confine myself to original documents and Reports of the time, and have printed these in full, even at the risk of some repetition. Similarly the lists of Members are copied from the Registers, with as little alteration as possible, whilst the dates of death are taken from the published lists of the Society. The absence of a second date—in the later lists—is, of course, no indication that the Member's living, but merely shows that his decease does not occur in the printed lists.

The following is the Book of Rules reproduced in the original type and spelling.

Rule X. had already lapsed in 1839 ; as the members became more numerous, there was less need of urging all who could to attend the funeral.

Rule XI. Unmarried ladies seem to have joined the Society from its beginning. In 1814 Miss Cicely Pilkington, Miss Mary Edsforth, Miss Anne Hothersall, Miss Ellen Brown, Miss Ellen Scott, Miss Jenny Lashwood, Miss Mary Rigby, Miss Ann Miller, Miss Gradwell, Miss Helen Wilkinson, Miss Mary Butler, Miss Marguerite Parkinson, Miss Elizabeth Miller, Miss Ann Miller, Miss Ann Chew, sixteen in all out of 189 members. The privileges thus allowed to the wives of the members is certainly very generous. It is recorded of one member that he married three times, twenty Masses were said for each wife, and twenty Masses for himself. On the other hand many members have been in the Society for a large number of years without ever availing themselves of their privileges. At the moment of writing Mr. W. F. Anderton has been 56 years a member of the Club ; Mr. Tom Finch, a like number of years. Other instances will be found from a perusal of the list of members.

Rule XII. has always remained in force so far as the date of the yearly meeting is concerned ; but the very characteristic words : "At which it is expected as many will attend as possibly can, to dine and spend the afternoon amicably together," were deleted in 1853. One cannot but regret this omission. Fortunately the spirit of the early founders of the club has survived, even though the letter of the Rules has changed. May that, indeed, never alter. In this connection it may be well to point out that the Broughton Club was originally a Friendly Society, formed amongst the farmers and yeomen of a then thickly populated district, all Catholics to a man. At the present date, within a radius of five miles, as the crow flies, there are no less than ten Catholic Churches : Newhouse, Grimsargh, Goosnargh, Longridge, Claughton, Garstang, Cottam, Catforth, Fernyhalgh, Lea, whilst just outside that radius are Wesham, Kirkham, Great Eccleston, Lee House, and the Churches of Preston. As is repeated time after time at the Annual Meeting, Broughton is the centre of the most Catholic District in the most Catholic County of England. The Catholic Fylde is justly proud of its traditions as the nursery of the Lancashire Priesthood ; the number of its Priests and their devotion to their sacred calling, has ever been the boast of the district ; the friendly affection of the laity on the one hand, and the just appreciation of the sterling merits of their people on the other, finds its expression year by year at the Meetings of the Broughton Club, which in its turn has had no small share in increasing these mutual and most delightful sentiments.

The Rules, as given above, were in force from the beginning of the Society till 1853, when they were recast and brought more into line with the rapid growth of the Society. The chief alteration inserted in the 1853 Rules was the condition of Membership, that the applicant must be a resident in the County of Lancaster. This ruled out the two branches which had been started, the one at Wardour Castle, Wiltshire, the other at Wakefield, in Yorkshire.

The old regulation that : “ Every Priest in the Society will likewise say one Mass for each member, immediately after his decease,” had been altered some years earlier to a definite number of twenty Masses for

6. The Clergy shall be requested to recommend the Deceased Members to the prayers of their Congregations, and to state that they are Members of "The Broughton Catholic Charitable Society."

7. A Mass for the Living Members shall be said by all the Clergy in the Society on Whit-Tuesday, or thereabouts.

8. The Spiritual Benefits are extended to the Wife of a Member ; and if she survives her husband, she becomes a Member, provided the Annual Subscription is continued.

RELIEF OF THE POOR.

9. After the payment of the necessary expenses of the Society, the incidental expenses of the Board of Management, and after making the usual retributions for Masses, which have been said for the Deceased and Living Members, the remainder of the Funds shall be distributed in Alms to the Poor.

10. To every Member of one year's standing from the date of payment of the first Annual Subscription, belongs the privilege of making a petition at the Annual Meeting for the relief of any poor person, whose name and residence shall be given in writing to the Secretary at this Meeting, or not later than a month following, after which no petition can be granted.

11. The Alms granted for the relief of the Poor shall be the same in amount. But if in extreme cases of destitution any member wishes to petition for a larger sum, he shall make an application to the Board by a letter addressed to the Secretary previous to the day of the Annual Meeting.

THE OLD MEETING ROOM AT THE SHATTELMORTH ARMS
—Drew 1861—
1922

12. No person shall be allowed to receive at the same Meeting by means of two Members, a double amount of relief.

13. Those who distribute the Alms are requested to urge the poor to pray for the Members of the Society.

ANNUAL MEETINGS.

14. There shall be an Annual Meeting of Members on Whit-Tuesday, at Broughton, at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of receiving the annual subscriptions, which are then due, for the distribution of Alms, and of the Annual Dinner, which takes place at 1 o'clock.

15. At the Dinner the Annual Election of President from amongst the Lay Members shall take place, as also the triennial Election of the Board. The number of new members admitted during the past year shall be announced. No motion suggesting an alteration of any rule or custom of the Society shall be entertained, unless notice of the same has been sent to the Secretary in writing one month previously, and the discussion of such motions shall take place before the usual toasts are proposed.

BOARD OF MANAGEMENT.

16. All the business of the Society shall be transacted by a Board of Management consisting of twelve members, viz., six Clergymen and six Laymen, who shall be elected every three years at the Annual Meeting.

MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.

17. The Board shall hold two Meetings a year, the first within a period of a month before Whit-Tuesday, and the second on Whit-Tuesday ; also whenever five Members consider it desirable to call a Meeting for the discussion of any business connected with the welfare of the Society. Five Members shall form a quorum. The Board shall make all the necessary arrangements for the Annual Dinner, shall select a Chairman, and Vice-Chairman, to preside, and arrange the list of Toasts to be proposed.

18. The Board shall have power to make bye-laws for the purpose of carrying out the objects and rules of the Society, and for the benefits of its Members.

19. The Officers of the Society shall be, a President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The President shall be elected every year, by the Members, at the Annual Meeting, and during his term of office shall be a Member of the Board. The Secretary and the Treasurer shall be elected by the Board, and shall hold office for three years.

FINANCE.

20. The Financial year ends on the 30th of April, after which date the usual retributions for Masses shall be made to the clergy, and all accounts shall be paid in full. The Finance Committee shall audit the accounts, which shall be submitted to the Board, at their Annual Meeting, and prepare a Balance Sheet of the annual receipts and expenditure to be exhibited to the Members on the day of the Annual Meeting, in the room in which the business is transacted.

THE SECRETARY.

21. The Secretary shall have charge of the Books, Records, and Property of the Society. He shall keep :

A Minute Book.

A Register of the Members,

A Register of the Clergy and the Masses said,

A Cash Book,

A List of Balance Sheets since 1887,

He shall attend the Meetings of the Board, the Finance Committee, and the Annual Meeting of the Members.

22. On receiving information of the death of a Member he shall at once give notice to the Clergy for the usual number of Masses to be said for the departed soul and at a convenient time he shall inform all the priests in the Society of the death of the said Member, and request them to recommend him to the prayers of their congregations.

23. Should the Deceased Member's subscription be in arrear he shall give notice to the family and collect the amount due.

To the above Rules an important alteration was made in 1919. For a long time 20 Masses had been said at the decease of any Member, but whereas the usual offering for a Mass had doubled, the annual subscription had remained the same. After mature deliberation the Board of Management recommended :

1st.—That the framework of the Society, as it has come down to us, should be maintained, as far as possible, in its integrity.

2nd.—That the alms to the poor, a sacrosanct inheritance from our fore-fathers, be retained.

3rd.—That a return be made to the earlier custom of the Society, of allowing 10 Masses for each Member on decease. At the same time, to meet the wishes of those who, at any cost, wish to retain the 20 Masses at death, the Board has decided to allow these 20 Masses to those who are willing to pay an annual subscription of 10s. instead of the customary 6s. 6d.

LIST OF MEMBERS, 1815.

—:O:—

The following is the earliest list of Members, that for the year 1815. With it, we print the Members who had died previous to that year. These two contain all the original Members, though it is to be regretted that we do not know the actual Founders. A few notes are added regarding the priests in the lists.

Rev. John Wareing, O.S.F., according to "The Laity's Directory," for 1816, died 1st July of that year, at Lowerhall, Lancashire.

Rev. Mr. Tate, also O.S.F., was at Lee House from 1808 to 1815, dying there in the latter year.

Rev. Mr. Martin was many years at Lee House, where he died in 1834. A tablet to his memory in the church there states that he paid £1,300 to buy the property, now the Hill Chapel, Goosnargh.

Rev. John Carter was in charge of Newhouse from 1736-1789 ; he was succeeded by his nephew, Mr. James Carter, 1789-1814 ; who was again succeeded by his nephew, Mr. Henry Carter, 1814-1826.

Of Rev. Mr. Lawrenson, Rev. Mr. Parkinson, and Rev. Mr. Gradwell, notices will be found in the Catholic Record Society's volumes.

Rev. Joseph Dunn—Daddy Dunn, as he was affectionately called—whose real name was Joseph Earpe, was born at Catterick, in Yorkshire, He entered the Society of Jesus, in 1764, and soon after his ordination came to Preston, where he laboured till his death in 1827, a period of no less than 51 years. It was he who built St. Wilfrid's Church, opened in 1793 ; and established the schools in Fox Street, opened in 1814. He took a very prominent part in the life of Preston, and was the moving spirit in introducing gas into the city. An excellent portrait of Father Dunn hangs in the Board Room of the Preston Gas Company ; this is here reproduced by permission of the Directors.

Where date of death is given in brackets, it does not appear in the official list, but has been taken from other sources.

In the following list the date given is the date of death ; in all subsequent lists where only one date is given, it is that of entry into the Society ; where two dates are given, the second is the date of death.

CHAPTER II.

The village of Broughton is four miles from Preston on the main road to Lancaster. It derived its name, according to Mr. Whitaker, from the fact that being near the Roman road from Manchester to Lancaster, there was a Roman fort there, and certainly the neighbourhood abounds in prominences most suitable to that purpose. Of Broughton, in Norman times, we learn that Edmund, Earl of Lancaster, brother of Edward I., derived a rent of eight shillings from Broughton, and that in the reign of John, Theobald Walter claimed against Ralph, son of Utred and Robert, his brother, the whole town of Brocton—namely, one carucate of land, which the King had given.

From the middle of the 13th century, the Barton family—Lords of the Manor of Barton and owners of much land hereabouts—were settled here. Mr. Gillow says they were all Catholic recusants. In Lord Burghley's map of 1590, showing the churches and chapels, with the principal seats of the gentry and their names, is marked Thomas Barton, of Barton Row (or Barton Hall). "This map was, no doubt, drawn up for the Privy Council to assist in tightening its grip, and thus to enable the Government to bring pressure on the great landowners to conform to the new doctrines.”—(Gillow). The landowners in Lancashire at this period were almost all Catholic.

The last of the Bartons was Fleetwood, the granddaughter of Thomas Barton, and heiress of the estate. After a child marriage to Sir Richard Molyneux, of Sefton, Bart.—the Molyneux were staunch “Papists” at this time—which marriage was dissolved by mutual consent, she married Richard Shuttleworth, of Gawthorp Hall, in the early years of James the First. He was M.P. for Preston for a time, and went by the name of “Old Smoot.” In 1617, when James I. was making his Royal Progress, and was passing through Lancashire, Old Smoot burned down his house, Barton Hall, to escape the expense of entertaining His Majesty.

The estate remained in the hands of the Shuttleworth Family until 1834, when it was sold to George Jacson, a Cotton Manufacturer of Preston, who was an Alderman, and Mayor in 1840.

At his death in 1846, his son, Charles Roger Jacson, succeeded to the estate and lived at the Hall until his death in 1893. He took a very prominent part in Preston and County affairs; and, as landlord, came in frequent contact with the Broughton Society.

In 1894 the whole estate was offered for sale “en Bloc,” but the highest bid of £100,000 was not accepted. Power was obtained from the Court to postpone the sale for five years, and in 1899 it was offered by auction in 72 lots. Lot 1, comprising the Mansion House of Barton Hall, three farms, with the Lordship of the Manor, was bought by Mr. William Smith, of Newsham House, ex-M.P. for North Lonsdale. The whole estate realised £141,000.

The original Hall is now a farm house—Barton Old Hall—and what was formerly called Barton Lodge, beautifully situated on an eminence near the Lancaster and Preston high-road, is now called Barton Hall. Many of those who were prominent in the early days of the Broughton Charitable Society, were tenants on the Barton Estate.

In the records of the Court Baron, of the Lord of the Manor of Barton—which deals with such local affairs as road maintenance and repair, ditch cleaning, etc.—the names frequently occur of early Presidents and members of the Society. In 1769, amongst the names of suitors at the Court Baron of James Shuttleworth, Esq., Lord of the Manor, held Wednesday, May 31st, 9th year of George III., 1769, at the house of ROGER WILDING, inn keeper, in Barton, before Nicholas Starkie, his steward there, we find that of JOHN LUND. Amongst those fined at this same court for non-attendance was JOHN BAINES. In 1770 JOHN LUND was amongst those presenting a suit against a neighbour for neglect of a rule. In 1780 JAMES BLACKBURN is amongst the Jurors, and again in 1781 and 1787. In 1780, too, Richard Fisher is a Juror, and in 1794. In 1782 appears the name of HENRY POPE as one of the gentlemen sworn. In 1783 the Court is held at JAMES BARTON'S, innkeeper, Barton.

In 1787 James Blackburn is on the Jury. Between 1794 and 1815 the name of John Hubberstey appears constantly in the Court records. He is often on the Jury, sometimes signing at the end of the record. In 1794 he was prosecuted for not repairing a part of Hag's Lane, but a note at the side says : " H. was not liable." In 1795 he was actually fined 35s. for non-repair of a roadway. But he seems to have taken a prominent part in the Court affairs, and in 1809 is described as " House-looker," (sic.) a similar title to that of " Star-looker " in other parts of Lancashire, where a special official was charged to see that due care was taken of the Stargrass, and that none burned it or mowed it immoderately ; it was most valuable as retaining the sand and preventing it from being blown on to the arable land.

Whilst dealing with the history of Broughton township, a few words should be added regarding the natural charms of the district. It is a most beautifully undulating country, for whilst there are no hills of great height, there is ample variety. The whole neighbourhood is well wooded, and year after year the reports bear witness to the pleasure which the charming surroundings gave to the visitors from Blackburn, Bolton, Wigan, and Manchester, etc. For example, the report of 1870 states : " Recently the accommodation has been somewhat inadequate for the hundreds who were desirous of taking part in the proceedings ; but it has been considered that if any change were made in regard to the meeting place, it would be detrimental to the interests of the Society, as both Clergy and Laity look upon it as a pleasant excursion, and although better provision might be made in a large town, yet the beautiful scenery and time-honoured associations would be lacking."

the case of the present worthy Secretary, Mr. Thomas Hothersall, as it was in the case of his predecessors.

MR. PETER NEWBY was the first Secretary, but how long he continued is not absolutely certain. The register, however, shows a new handwriting in 1824, in which year we know that Mr. Richard Pemberton was Secretary. As the handwriting is the same from 1815 to 1823, and the last entries of 1823 are very roughly written, I would suggest that Mr. Peter Newby was Secretary continuously from 1787 till 1823, and was succeeded by Mr. Richard Pemberton.

The following notice of Mr. Newby is taken from Gillow's Biographical Dictionary.

“Peter Newby, schoolmaster and poet, born in 1745, was a younger son of William Newby, of Horncop Hall, Kendal, and his wife Elizabeth. In 1757 he was sent as an ecclesiastical student to Doway College. Being rejected by his family on his return in 1764, through having no vocation for the Church, he went to Liverpool, and engaged himself as steward in a ‘Guineaman.’ After a long banishment, he returned to Liverpool, January 14th, 1766. On the following October 8th, he was engaged to teach at a Catholic School near Liverpool, apparently at Woolton, where he would seem to have got married. His wife's maiden name was probably Elizabeth Gaunt. Seven years later he opened a school at Burton-in-Kendal, removed to Great Eccleston in the Fylde in 1775, and in 1780 to Gerard Hall, Houghton, near Fernyhalgh. In 1799 he gave up his school and commenced as a book-seller and printer in the Market Place, Preston. After seven or eight years he was obliged to abandon the business, and he reopened an academy in the town. But latterly he depended on the kindness of his friends, and upon the public generally, to procure a decent subsistence by writing letters for them and by occasionally teaching languages. During the last ten years of his life he made himself master of Spanish and Portuguese. He died at his house in Hill Street, Friargate, Preston, December 16th, 1827, aged 82. His friend, Peter Whittle, the historian of Preston, says that his resignation to the divine will was exemplary. The number of his published poems, all composed between 1771 and 1787, is forty-five. They all have a moral tendency. and over his remains at Fernyhalgh is a poetical epitaph composed by himself."

By a strange piece of ill fortune, Mr. Newby's name does not appear in the lists of deceased members of the Society. Apparently his great age and impoverished circumstances caused him to be forgotten, and it must be a great pleasure to all members of the Society to find one—to whom we suspect the Society very largely owes its origin and constitution—reinstated in the grateful remembrance of the present generation.

His successor was RICHARD PEMBERTON, who held office from Newby's retirement in 1823 until 1831, a period of 8 years only. He was baptised at Fernyhalgh, January 21st, 1785, and was the son of Richard Pemberton and Ellen Sudell, of Ribbleton. He would be about 38 when he took up office, and died at Preston, March 30, 1831.

RICHARD GORNAL succeeded to office on the death of Mr. Pemberton, and carried on his onerous duties for no less than 33 years ; like his predecessor, and also his successor, he was baptised at Fernyhalgh, the date being November 10, 1799, and he was the son of Thomas Gornall and Alice Gillow. He retained office until his death at Preston, December 19, 1864.

JOHN FRANCIS CLARKSON was baptised at Fernyhalgh, in 1823, and was the youngest son of John Francis Clarkson (born, 1781 ; died, 1853), of Three Mile Cross Farm, Grimsargh, and his wife, Jane Jenkinson ; his Grandfather being Henry Clarkson (born, 1749 ; died, 1820), of Grimsargh, who married Ann Eccles. His oldest brother, Henry Clarkson, (born, 1814 ; died, 1885), married Ellen Abbot (daughter of George Abbot and Ann Burgess), and she inherited the famous old Missionary Altar which had been in the possession of the Burgess family for generations, and the history of which is narrated by Dom Bede Camm, in his " Forgotten Shrines," pp. 304-311. The Clarkson family have been located at Grimsargh for many generations, and George Clarkson, of Grimsargh, husbandman, who was a recusant in 1715, would, no doubt, be an ancestor. Mr. J. F. Clarkson, who married Alice Gornall, daughter of the then Secretary, remained in office until his own death at Fernyhalgh October 30th, 1892, another example of long and devoted service in a good cause. He was followed by the present Secretary, MR. THOMAS HOTHERSALL, who has already served over 30 years and bids fair to create a record both in length of service and in the marvellous growth of the Society during his term of office. He is nephew, by marriage, of his predecessor. The office of Secretary has thus been in the same family for close on 100 years.

CHAIRMAN AT ANNUAL MEETINGS.

Another office which has been most honourably held is that of Chairman at the Annual Meetings, and here again the Society was most fortunate in the selection. In looking through the list of those who have held office for several years in succession, we find that Very Rev. Dr. Brewer, O.S.B., of Brownedge, presided from 1840-1848, and probably earlier ; Rev. J. J. Morris, 1849 to 1851 ; Rev. J. B. Smith, O.S.B., Brindle, 1852-1873 ; Father Walton, 1874-1887 ; Canon Gordon, 1889-1904 ; Canon O'Reilly, 1905-1909 ; Canon Cosgrave, 1910-1918 ; Rev. J. Brophy, 1918- .

VICE-CHAIRMAN. Amongst those who held this office with most distinction, should be mentioned Rev. J. J. Morris, Canon Hodgson, Monsignor Nugent, Canon—later Bishop—Bilsborrow, Rev. W. S. Byrne, Canon Richardson (of Manchester), Canon Lonsdale, Rev. J. Bousfield.

It is a happy arrangement whereby the President for the year has the direction of the Society, with the assistance of the Board of Management. But the President for the year is not the chairman at the dinner ; in many cases he would not have the qualifications. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman at the dinner are appointed yearly by the Board of Management. And whereas the Rules require the President of the Society to be a layman ; the Chairman of the meetings has always been selected from among the clerical members, as also the Vice-Chairman, with one or two exceptions. It needs no small talent to give satisfaction to so large a meeting, and before now the criticism has been heard at Broughton that such a reverend gentleman “ Was better in the wood than in the bottle ! ”—better in the pulpit than as host at such a meeting.

The number of members in 1815 was 189, and from succeeding Chapters it will be found that the number of members in 1839, that is 25 years later, was 351—23 clergy, and 328 laity. In 1859, 20 years later, it was 1,120, including 100 Priests. In 1885 it was 2,200 ; and in 1922 the total membership is over 3000.

These figures are an eloquent testimony to the growth of the Society: the amounts distributed in charity, and the number of Masses said, will be found in further tables.

PRESIDENTS.

It is not possible to give biographical sketches of the Presidents, but it is very interesting to note how often the office was held by members of the same family. In this regard the Singletons hold the premier place, having five Presidents in the family. Mrs. Clare, whose portrait is here given, was mother of John Noble (President, 1841), grandmother of Mrs. George Singleton—he was President in 1845,—and great grandmother of George Singleton (President, 1872). Simon Singleton was President in 1817, and John in 1818. Other families with several representatives in the list of Presidents are the following: Walkers, 4; Bambers, 4; Edsforths, 3; Fishers, 3; Gillows, 3; Smiths, 3; Parkers, 3; Holdens, 3; Wells, 3; Gornalls, 3; Turners, 3; Pilkingtons, 2; Parkinsons, 2. It is also very remarkable that for the first 30 years the Presidents were all from the immediate neighbourhood of Broughton; farmers and others of the country people. Preston even, though only five miles distant, did not provide a President till 1819; whilst the first President from any distance was Mr. Henry Polding, of Blackburn, in 1835, seventy years after the Society had been founded.

CHAPTER III.

By the courtesy of the Editor of the "Preston Guardian," I was able to look through the files of that paper, and of the "Preston Chronicle." These go back to 1814, but the earliest report of the Meeting of the Club is in 1825, when the dinner was held at the Shuttleworth Arms, then tenanted by Mrs. Ramsbottom. The minutes record 383 members, 200 petitions, 373 Masses. The Secretary's salary was still £2 2s. 0d., as it had been from the earliest time, certainly previous to 1815.

This and the following Chapter is compiled partly from the "Preston Chronicle" reports, and partly from the minutes and published lists of the Society.

1824. The report this year is interesting, as giving Mr. Richard Pemberton as Secretary. There were 266 members, of whom 13 were Priests. This year's report bears the name of J. Thomson, Printer, Fishergate, Preston, and it is very remarkable that this same firm have printed the yearly report from that time to this, a period of 100 years.

1828. At this Meeting held on 27 May, "it was proposed and resolved that all members who have paid their subscriptions for eight years, should they be so unfortunate as to be unable to pay his (sic) subscription he shall still have the privilege of receiving the spiritual benefits at his decease. This resolution is subject to be rescinded at any Annual Meeting." The resolution is of interest, as showing how the Society, in its early days, included many to whom the yearly subscription of 6s. 6d. was a considerable sum.

The minutes for this year also note: "only 25 dinners to be paid for in future," a sign that there had been a considerable decline at this period.

1832. At the Whit-Tuesday Meeting it was ordained: "that there should be only two meetings this year, the 2nd Sunday in December, and Whit-Tuesday. This rule superseded that which ordained four quarterly meetings.

1840. The dinner was held at Jacson's Arms, as the Golden Ball had then come to be called. Indeed the printed Rules of 1839 actually alter the original "charter" of the Society given on page 4. Here we read that: "At a Meeting of Catholics, held this day—6 May, 1787, at the Golden Ball," it was resolved to found this Society"; whereas the 1839 copy of the rules reads: "At a Meeting of Catholics, held this day at the Jacson Arms," etc. Mr. Jacson had bought the estate of Barton Hall, and, no doubt, in deference to him the Inn had been re-named the Jacson Arms. Still the insertion of the words "Jacson Arms," in so important a document, as the Charter of the Broughton Society, is very bold. Mr. Jacson sold the estate in 1894, and the Inn resumed its title of the Golden Ball.

“ The Chairman rose and said he had great pleasure in calling their attention to the first toast. They were a religious community established for relief of the poor and to assist by their prayers, the living and deceased members of the association ; holding that character he would beg to propose the ‘ Supreme Head of the Catholic Church, Pope Gregory XVI.’ All who had visited Rome, had been struck in admiration of his character ; and he had been told by Bishops, who had come from the eternal city, that none had an evil word to say of him. Although 76 years of age, he was as vigorous in mind and body, as most men of 50.—(Drunk with due honours).

“ The Vice-Chairman gave ‘ The Health of Her Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria.’ He had but to name the toast, to ensure its cordial reception. As Catholics, they were essentially loyal ; their ancestors had been so under the most trying circumstances, and it was unlikely that they would swerve from the example of their fathers. Most loyally received and drunk with three times three, and more cheers.

“ The Chairman had the greatest possible gratification in rising to propose ‘ Health of the Venerable Bishop of the District, The R.R. Dr. Brown,’ who was now returning from Rome, in confirmed health. With his health he would also unite that of their young, esteemed, and, he hoped, would be found valuable Coadjutor R. R. Dr. Sharples. He had known him long as the laborious Missioner of Blackburn, and all must feel an anxious wish for the success of his government and that of Dr. Brown.—(Enthusiastically drunk).

“ Rev. J. B. Smith was called on by the Chairman to acknowledge the toast. Mr. Smith had great pleasure and pride in doing so, and was sure that Dr. Brown would be gratified to learn that his health had been so cordially pledged. He had particular reason for returning thanks for Dr. Sharples, for he had known him as his friend and neighbour, and now he was most happy in obeying him as his Bishop. The name of Dr. Sharples was never mentioned in Blackburn but with esteem and respect, Men of all persuasions held him in the highest regard, and his old flock never mentioned him but with veneration.

“ The Vice-Chairman was happy to propose ‘ The health of the President and success of the Society.’ They had assembled from various parts of the district and he was glad to congratulate them ; he had pleasure in renewing his visits. On leaving Yorkshire he had left his flock to the care of an excellent clergyman, Rev. F. Jarrett, one likely to do more good than he had done. His increasing years required more leisure and retirement, and on that account he had left the mission of Wakefield for Ulverston. He had the highest opinion of and value for the Society, and a sincere desire for its continued prosperity. He hoped by some new regulation about to be adopted, its efficiency would be augmented. He was the oldest clerical member, having been in the Society 30 years.—(The toast was received with three times three, and one cheer.)

Song : ‘ The Jolly Miller.’

“ Mr. Bank, solicitor, responded for the toast, in the absence of the President, Mr. Willcock. He regretted Mr. Willcock’s absence, but he had no doubt he would be well pleased when he informed him that his health had been so kindly drunk, and when he knew of an increase of members, an increase of funds, and of increased accommodation. Before he sat down he begged to propose 'The health of the Clergy of the District.'—(Honoured with prolonged cheers).

Duett : 'Alls Well.'

"The Chairman felt delighted that he had to return thanks for the clergy of the district. He had lived a quarter of a century amongst them, and he was proud to be associated with men who had at heart the welfare of the Society and the interests of religion. It fell to his lot to give the health of one of the most valient members of the Society, one who was always at the wheel and at the plough, and who had done so much to promote the Society's interests, and to raise it to its present prosperous condition. Although their Secretary, Mr. Gornall, was a layman, he had all the zest of a clergyman, and though employed in daily toil, his religion and his God were his chief concern. 'Mr. Richard Gornall, and may every blessing attend him, his farm and his cattle.'—(Received with most hearty cheers).

Song : 'An Old English Gentleman.'

"Mr. R. Gradwell rose to propose 'The health of the Vice-Chairman.' To-day he completed his 62nd year—a reason why they should pledge to him (Rev. J. G. Morris) in a bumper, that he might have another long lease.—(Loud applause and prolonged cheers).

"The Vice-Chairman assured them that he felt overwhelmed with their kindness, and knew not how to express his gratitude to them. He was happy, as he said before, to meet them on his natal day. He had been on the Ministry since 1807, and by the blessing of God, no little good had attended his ministry. He left in Preston 17,000 Catholics ; on going to Wakefield he found but 28, but God had given him an increase of over 800. He had never suffered either religion or politics to disturb the courtesies and charities of life, and had not left the shadow of an enemy in the town of Wakefield. He thanked them all from his heart for the cordial manner in which they had drunk his health, and wished them every happiness in this world and in the next.—(Cheers).

“ The Secretary read a list of the charitable contributions and grants of relief, and thanked the Company for so cordially drinking his health. The duties of his office were becoming more arduous, but if he had health and spirits and could discharge them to their satisfaction, they might continue his services. He should, however, prefer to have a committee to assist him.

“ The Vice-Chairman said the success of the Society depended on an accession of members, and he wished all would go away with the determination to add one more to their numbers ; then they might still go on successfully. The association was so perfectly Catholic that they ought, in every distance of space, to pray for and assist one another in their corporal and spiritual necessities. He was happy to inform them that 79 new members had joined the Society during the past year (cheers), 34 of whom had been sent by Rev. William Lomax, of Wardour Castle. He would give ‘ Health of the new Members and of Rev. William Lomax.’—(Drunk enthusiastically.)

“The next toast was ‘Mr John Gillow, of Elswick Grange,’ the father of the Club, proposed by Mr. R. Gradwell and honoured with three cheers.

“Mr. Gillow was gratified to hear of the prosperity of the Society. In the more early days of his life, the Catholic Church was in a low and prostrate condition ; persecution and suffering had blighted and almost extinguished it ; but like a tree whose branches had been lopped off, it had budded again and was now in full blossom. New churches were being built and new charities established. Charity never failed ; it was like a deposit in a bank always giving a return of interest.

Song : ‘The Chase.’

“The Vice-Chairman had the honour of giving the health of the excellent and revered Chairman, who had so often presided over their meetings, and though last on the list of toasts it was not the least. He begged God to preserve his life and give him health to preside over them for many years to come.—(Drunk with loud, long, and enthusiastic applause).

Song : ‘St. Patrick was a Gentleman.’

“The Chairman had the greatest pleasure in returning thanks for the cordial manner in which his health had been received. It was delightful to see the happy countenances and cheerful hearts of all present. After the election of Mr. Gillow, as President, the National Anthem was sung, and the meeting separated at 3 p.m.”

1845. The meeting was held in the Shuttleworth Arms. Dr. Brewer, in the chair. The total membership was 549, of whom 49 were new members. “Lord Arundel and the Wiltshire Branch of the Society,” was proposed by the Vice-Chairman. This was the second branch which had been founded, and owed its beginning to Rev. Will Lomax. Another branch had been established in Wakefield by Rev. J. G. Morris, and included Lord Stourton, Mr. Middleton of Stockeld, and others of the gentry of Yorkshire. Both branches were the personal effort of their respective founders, and ceased to exist when that was withdrawn. The actual list of the Wiltshire branch still exists ; it contains 29 names including 4 priests.

This year there were 969 Masses said, and £71 3s. 6d. given in charity.

1846, 1847, 1848, 1849, 1850. At the first three Dr. Brewer was chairman, at the latter two, Rev. J. G. Morris. They were all held at the Shuttleworth Arms, and the membership continued to increase, reaching 700 in 1849.

1851. Rev. Thomas Cookson, in proposing the health of the Secretary, Mr. Gornall, alluded to his long and zealous services. There had been 43 deaths in the past year. 475 petitions for alms were granted, amounting to £140. The day was extremely wet yet over 200 sat down to dinner. The very large number of Masses, 1,027, had been said for the members of the Society, during the course of this year.

1852. The Annual Meeting was held at Barton Lodge, "in the New Room, 27 yards by 10 yards. It was tastefully adorned for the occasion, and contrasted with the old wooden shed in which dinner was wont to be served up, presented a most cheerful appearance." The number of members steadily increased ; this year there were over 1,200 members, including 100 clergy. 200 sat down to dinner, at which Rev. J. B. Smith, O.S.B., Brindle, was in the chair, and Rev. Peter Kaye, Vice-Chairman.

The builder of the new premises was Mr. Thomas Mackerall, and the specification stipulates: "That the room be 73 feet long and 30 feet wide, outside measurement; the room to be entered by stone stairs, 4 feet 4 inches wide; the room to be lighted by two good large sash windows to the South, one large sash window in each gable, and three lights in the roof on the South side." In this room the greater part of the yearly meetings have taken place during the past seventy years; indeed, for a long period they were held without interruption, certainly from 1852 to 1871, when a marquee was used for the first time.

1853. The Board of Management which now came into existence, in accordance with the new Rules, composed of five members, namely, two Clergymen, two Laymen, one of them being the President for the time being, and the Secretary. The first members were Rev. J. B. Smith, Rev. Thomas Cookson, Mr. Thomas Gillow, the President for the time being, and Mr. Richard Gornall. They ordered 800 copies of the new rules to be printed, and agreed "that the balance due for the building of the Meeting House, at Broughton, be paid from the funds of the Society."

The Meeting was held at Shuttleworth Arms, when 223 members were present, including Right Rev. Dr. Burgess, Bishop of Clifton.

1854. The Annual Dinner was again held at the Shuttleworth Arms, Rev. J. B. Smith, O.S.B., in the chair ; Very Rev. Canon Hodgson, Vice-Chairman. The number of members was 1,100 ; 1,368 Masses were offered ; 637 poor relieved with 5s. to 6s. each. It was stated at the meeting that 726 members had died since the beginning of the Society, and £3,374 had been distributed in charity.

1855 and 1856. Both at Shuttleworth Arms. Rev. J. B. Smith in the chair. The number of members in the latter year had declined to 893 ; 560 poor had been relieved with 4s. ; and 70 new members had joined. It is noted that the last three years the weather had been very fine, and the meeting went off most successfully. The Board of Management consisted of Rev. Richard Gillow, Rev. Jos. Walmesley, Mr. James Thornton, the President elect, and the Secretary.

1857, 1858, 1859. Rev. J. B. Smith, O.S.B., in the chair. The weather was fine on each occasion, and the meetings most successful. The following is the report of the proceedings of 1859, which is given verbatim.

“ It is a renowned Society, the Broughton Catholic Charitable Association, and in no County in England, except in Lancashire, could such a multitude of Catholics—priests and people—be united together in the cause of charity. This Society, in fact, may be termed a great league and federation for the relief of the poor and the spiritual benefit of living and deceased members. To become a member, one condition is that the applicant should be resident in the County of Lancaster. Instituted at Broughton, near Preston, in the year 1787, when Catholics were a small scattered remnant, when the yoke of persecution still galled them, and when those amongst them who were suffering under poverty and sickness had few friends to relieve them, this Society has grown and extended, and enlarged its sphere of usefulness year after year, until now it numbers 1,100 members, and has this year (at the Meeting on Tuesday) relieved 700 poor persons. The Society's Annual Meeting is held each Whit-Tuesday, at the Shuttleworth Arms, Broughton, and Catholics from North and South Lancashire—from Lancaster to Liverpool, from Burnley to Blackpool—congregate at each yearly meeting on Whit-Tuesday in very goodly numbers. The season and the weather are usually favourable—" nunc est formosissimus annus "— and being Whitsuntide withal, the Broughton meeting is always a great gathering. The undernamed Clergy attended on Tuesday :—Very Rev. Canons R. Hodgson and T. Irving, R. Gillow (Fernyhalgh), Rural Dean ; Rev. J. B. Smith, Brindle ; C. Walker, Lea ; Joseph Walmesley, Lytham ; E. Dinmore, Goosnargh ; R. Glassbrook, Stydd Lodge ; W. Sharples, Alston Lane ; T. M. Margison, Wrightington ; J. Bateman, St. Wilfrid's, Preston ; Thomas Smith, Osbaldeston ; W. Henderson, Yealand ; W. Fayer, Salmesbury ; William Cottam, Portico ; J. V. Meaney and G. Meaney, Blackburn ; E. Swarbrick, W. Walker, and R. Taylor, St. Augustines', Preston ; J. Peduzzi, Pleasington ; Thomas Speakman, Lydiate ; James Swarbrick, Thurnham ; D. Vandenweghe, Over Darwen ; J. P. Hall, Warrington ; J. Dauber, Mawdesley ; T. Walton, Liverpool ; W. Dunderdale, Gt. Harwood ; R. Gillow, Newsham ; W. Corlett, Hindley ; W. Taylor, Halshaw Moor ; H. Jones,

Aspull ; J. Proctor, Walton-le-Dale ; J. Aylward, Chorley ; W. Mitchell, Wigan ; P. De Blow, Chipping ; W. Hampson, Lawkland ; J. Nugent, Liverpool ; S. Clarkson, Manchester ; J. Gornall, Manchester ; T. Flanagan, Burnley ; Mr. Brierley, Woolton. The chair at the dinner (for it is a convivial as well as a charitable meeting) was occupied by Rev. J. B. Smith, of Brindle ; and the vice-chair, by Very Rev. Canon Hodgson, of Burscough Hall. ‘ His Holiness the Pope,’ ‘ Her Majesty the Queen,’ etc., were proposed by the Chairman and enthusiastically received. The Vice-Chairman gave ‘ His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman,’ which called forth rapturous cheers. ‘ The Healths of the Bishops of Liverpool and Salford,’ were next given by the Chairman, and responded to by Rev. Wm. Walker on the part of the former, and by Very Rev. Canon Irving on behalf of the latter. Mr. Joseph Gillow proposed ‘ The Clergy,’ for whom Rev. J. Nugent returned thanks. The Vice-Chairman gave ‘ Success to the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society,” ‘ The Health of the New Members ’ (58 in number, amongst whom was Very Rev. R. Burchall, the Venerable President of the Benedictines), and the Rev. J. Bateman acknowledged the toast. The health of the President of the Society, Mr. R. Bilsborrow, and of the worthy Secretary, Mr. Richard Gornall (who has filled, with much credit, the office for 28 years) having been given and drunk with applause, the President for the ensuing year was elected—Mr. John Fisher Blackburn.”

The members now totalled 1,044 ; there had been 40 deaths in the course of the year, and 1,052 Masses had been offered. Mr. James Thornton had been elected to the Board of Management, and its meetings were held at his office.

1860, 1861, 1862, 1863. At the Shuttleworth Arms. Rev. J. B. Smith, Chairman ; and Very Rev. Canon Hodgson, Vice-Chairman. The numbers during these years slightly decreased. At the 1862 meeting "the Vice-Chairman proposed the health of Mr. Richard Gornall, who had been the active Secretary of the Society since the year 1832. His services in that capacity were highly eulogised, and a general feeling prevailed that they deserved some more permanent acknowledgement, as the success of the Society was, in a great measure, owing to his exertions." The following year the good Secretary passed to his reward ; he had directed the affairs of the Society for the long period of 32 years.

CHAPTER IV.

1865. Rev. Thos. Bridges returned thanks for the New Members, As late as 1911 he was still present at the Annual Meeting, when he proudly boasted of being the oldest member present. This year's meeting was a huge success, and as the speaker stated, amid increased applause, "Nunc est formosissimus Annus" (Virgil) anglice, "a top hole year!"—A quotation used on more than one occasion in connection with these annual gatherings.

1866. The meeting was held at the Shuttleworth Arms, Rev. J. B. Smith in the chair. Mr. John Garsang, of Clayton Green, was elected President for the ensuing year, and Mr. John Francis Clarkson, of Fernyhalgh, was appointed to fill the office of Secretary of the Society, rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Richard Gornall, by whom the duties had been so long and so efficiently discharged. The condolence and sympathy of the Meeting were feelingly and respectfully tendered to Mr. Gornall's family, and a grateful eulogium was passed on him for his sterling honesty, uprightness and integrity of character. The thanks of the meeting were voted to C. A. Jacson, Esqr., of Barton Lodge, for the improvements made in the room, wherein the dinner annually takes place.

1867. The Board of Management now consisted of Rev. J. B. Smith, Rev. Jos. Walmesley, Mr. William Turner (President), Mr. James Thornton (Auditor), and Mr. John Francis Clarkson (Secretary).

The Rev. J. B. Smith was in the chair, and Very Rev. Canon Carter, of Bolton, Vice-Chairman. In proposing the health of the Holiness, Pope Pius IX, the Chairman said "They all venerated the head placed over them, and might he occupy that position for many years to come. (Hear, hear). It was stated in the papers—and in the Catholic papers too—that at the liquefaction of the blood of St. Januarius this year, there was seen a little black speck, and it was said also that that speck had been noticeable on other occasions previous to some great calamity happening to the church. They must, however, pray and hope that this would not be the case now; but if it was, they must hope that His Holiness and all his spiritual subjects would patiently bear whatever Almighty God might send upon him and them. The Pope would, of course, go on in the same quiet manner which had drawn the admiration of the whole world to himself. (Hear, hear).

The foregoing paragraph is very remarkable when we remember that within two years of this date the Holy See had been deprived of the Temporal Power, and Pius IX was a prisoner in the Vatican Palace.

The Vice-Chairman proposed the Bishops of Liverpool and Salford. After some introductory remarks, he said: "Two more excellent persons could not be found to preside over the diocese of Lancashire. In the Liverpool diocese they did require a Bishop who could look after them (laughter), and if Rome was never infallible before, it was so when it placed Dr. Goss in the See of Liverpool. However, he spoke with very great reverence and respect of Dr. Goss, no one had a greater regard for him. He was chosen as being the right man in the right place. He laboured as very few men could, he was getting his clergy into some sort of order, approaching the regularity and discipline and good conduct of a neighbouring diocese. (Laughter). As for Dr. Turner, the Bishop of Salford, he believed he gloried in being a Preston man, and both of the bishops gloried a little bit in being Lancashire men. Both of them were genuine Lancashire persons. Besides, Dr. Turner, they knew, was a very gentle, mild and kind man; whatever little faults—and they were very little—he had to find with his clergy, he first drew proper attention to them and put things right without much noise. (Laughter and applause). He was remarkable for never having yet refused to see any of his priests who went on any errand to beg or borrow money. (Laughter). He (the Vice-Chairman) did not know whether all Bishops did this; he believed some did not. Whether it was a wise or a foolish thing he did not know, but it pleased his poor priests in the Salford diocese, and was a matter of which they felt very proud. They had always access to the Bishop, and they had always a kind word; and if he were chiding them he did it in that kind fatherly way, which made them think they had done something good after all. (Laughter). The toast he had to propose was ‘The Health of the two Bishops.’ ” The toast was enthusiastically drunk, and was followed by the Song : “ The Sea, the Sea.” by Rev. Father Cotham, S.J.

Very Rev. Provost Cookson proposed "The continued Prosperity of the Society," and Rev. J. Gillow "The Clergy.'

Rev. Father Nugent, of Liverpool, proposed "The Health of Mr. William Turner," the retiring President. He (Father Nugent) looked upon the Society as one of the greatest bulwarks of Catholicity in this country. If the struggle, which the Chairman referred to came, it would not arise in England so long as the clergy and the laity were bound together and understood each other, as the members of that Society did. In regard to the clergy, notwithstanding the difference of their place of birth—some having been born in the immediate neighbourhood, and others more southward—their place of residence and their clerical order, there was the common feeling amongst them so far as the Broughton Society was concerned. They were all united; and he believed that in that Society the members made no distinction between one class of clergy and another; and it was the same throughout the county of Lancaster. That Society also begat respect for the clergy, and so long as there were respect for and confidence in them, they need not fear any revolution which might be talked of. (Applause). In France, Spain and Italy, matters were different to what they were in England and Ireland. For a long time—during the period referred to by Rev. Mr. Gillow—the laity and clergy had been bound together. The laity had leaned upon the clergy, the clergy had sprung from the laity of the country; and they had been one in thought, and one in spirit with the laity. (Hear, hear). Afterwards, Father Nugent said that at that Annual Meeting they often met with new faces, but they got introduced to the strangers, became acquainted, and this good Catholic spirit existed amongst the Catholics throughout the County of Lancashire. He looked upon the Society as one of the greatest helps to preserve the respect and confidence towards the clergy, which he had referred to ; and if they felt that in larger towns there was, amongst a certain class of young men, a little coldness as regards the clergy, all he could say was, that they should bring those young men with them, and make them, if possible, members of that Society, so that they might get a spark of that good old Catholic spirit which has always existed in the Broughton Club. As long as they had men like Mr. Turner, who were not merely Catholics in name, but in heart and idea, ready to sacrifice their time and personal interest for the benefit of the Society, he was sure it would always prosper, as it had done in past years. Father Nugent then called upon the company to drink the health of Mr. Turner, the President, in the Lancashire style. (Applause).

Rev. W. Walker, of St. Augustine's, Preston, proposed " The New Members," coupling with it the name of Canon O'Reilly, who, in returning thanks, spoke of the pleasure he had experienced in meeting so many hearty good fellows, and hoped that, if he could, he would always be present at their gatherings. He returned thanks on behalf of the new members for the manner in which the company had drunk their health. It will, of course, be remembered that six years later the speaker, as Bishop O'Reilly, succeeded to the venerable Bishop Goss, and ruled the diocese of Liverpool for 20 years.

Mr. Salmon sang "God Save the Queen," after which "Father Cotham sang, with great spirit, the appropriate song, 'When our Old Catholic Fathers Lived a long time ago.'" Very Rev. Provost Cookson, in feeling terms, referred to the memory of the lately deceased Chairman, Rev. J. B. Smith, of Brindle, and expressed his regret at the loss the Society had sustained through his death. Father Smith presided for the first time as far back as 1842, when he was asked to take the place of his Benedictine Colleague, Dr. Brewer, who, in his turn, was referred to as having long presided at the meetings. To the writer it is a special source of pleasure to record the services to the Society of these two venerable Priests; certainly it could not be said of them that "they were better in the wood than in the bottle." Whilst on the one hand Dr. Brewer distinguished himself by building the beautiful church at Brownedge, Father J. B. Smith served the Mission of Brindle, from 1829 till his death in 1874, a period of 45 years. Rev. James Nugent was, this year, asked to take the chair, but he was unable to attend, much to the Society's regret. It is again a source of gratification to record the connection with the Society of this great worker and most holy Priest. He was Vice-Chairman in 1869, 1870; and on several other occasions he spoke at the meetings with that eloquence for which he was so justly famous. It will be remembered that a most imposing statue stands to his memory in St. Johns Gardens, Liverpool—the only Priest to whom such public honour has ever been accorded in England.

MR. JOHN CROOKALL, J.P.
Member B.C.C.S. 1869-1918.
President 1893.

The Minutes record that the number of living members was 1,596 ; deaths during the year, 75 ; for whom, and for the living members, 1,906 Masses have been offered ; and 1,245 poor persons relieved with the sum of 4s. each.

Rev. Thos. Walton was elected to the Board of Management, and in the following year Rev. John Bilsborrow, who had occupied the Vice-Chair. From 1892 till 1903, Bishop Bilsborrow was the esteemed Bishop of Salford.

1876. At the Annual Meeting Mr. W. F. Anderton proposed that " the Board of Management be increased to six clerical and six lay members, and the President of the year." After considerable discussion and great confusion and uproar, the Chairman declared the motion carried. The following names were approved by the meeting to form the future Board :—Rev. T. Walton, J. Bilsborrow, A. Powell, F. Hines, J. Gornall, and W. Berry ; with Messrs. W. F. Anderton, T. Thornton, P. Pyke, W. Banks, R. Howard, and Robert Dunderdale.

1877. Rev. T. Walton occupied the chair, and Rev. John Bilsborrow, the vice-chair ; and they held the same offices at the Meetings of 1878, 1879, 1880.

At the 1879 meeting, Rev. T. Moynihan sang " The Death of Nelson," in such fine style that the meeting loudly encored, to which the Reverend gentleman responded with " Tom Bowling," in the same strain. Rev. F. Hawksworth gave " The Last Rose of Summer," and Rev. W. Cotham, S.J., " When our old Catholic Fathers." It may be noted here that the reason why more space is not devoted in the local Press to the excellent work of the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society, is, that so many similar Societies have fixed on this week for their Annual Meeting. Besides the Whitsuntide Processions of the Catholic and other Guilds—these alone fill many columns, year after year, and are of great local interest—the Friendly Societies, the Druids, the Ancient Order of Shepherds, the Oddfellows, not to mention several clubs, such as the Goosnargh Club, all hold their meetings in Whitsun Week, and send reports of their proceedings to the Press, so that our Broughton C.C.S. has to be content with less space than would otherwise be the case.

1881. In reply to a letter from the Secretary, regarding increased accommodation, the following reply was received :—

BARTON HALL,
PRESTON.

24 May, 1881.

DEAR MR. CLARKSON,

In reply to your note I beg to say that I do not contemplate extending the public accommodation at the Four Lane Ends, Broughton, and therefore an interview would be to no purpose.

Yours sincerely,

C. R. JACSON.

In consequence of this letter Mr. W. F. Anderton at the Annual Meeting moved “ a tent be procured annually,” and this was passed.

1882. Rev. T. Walton and J. Bilsborrow were again Chairman and Vice-Chairman, and the Board of Management was appointed, consisting of Revs. T. G.

Walton, J. Bilsborrow, F. Hines, J. Gornall, W. A. Banks, and W. Gordon ; with Messrs. Anderton, Pyke, Thornton, Banks, Howard, and G. Singleton.

1883. The meeting this year was favoured by the presence of Right Rev. Herbert Vaughan, Bishop of Salford ; and also of Right Rev. Edmund Knight, Bishop of Shrewsbury. Fathers Walton and Bilsborrow again presided.

Father W. Cotham, tho' he had already completed his 77th year, sang "When our old Catholic Fathers." The toast of "The New Members," was responded to by the Bishop of Salford, who had expressed the wish to join the Society. The number of members was given as 2,260 ; deaths during the year, 89 ; 2,260 Masses had been said ; and 1,685 poor persons relieved with 4s. each.

1884. This year Father Cotham sang "God Save the Queen," and Mr. Crookall "When our Old Catholic Fathers Lived," which he continued to sing for over 30 years. Though one of the busiest and most popular men of the Fylde, he was never happier than at the Broughton Meeting. He was indeed a "Broughton Clubber" of the best type ; a devoted Catholic and an excellent man of business, ready to take his part in the public duties of his country. He was 4 times Chairman of the Fleetwood Urban District Council, 1896, 1900, 1901, and 1904 : twice Chairman and 3 times Vice-Chairman of the Fleetwood School Board, of which he was a member for 33 year. He was Chairman of the Lancashire Urban Districts Councils Association from its inception in 1902 until his death.

Appointed a County Magistrate in 1904, Mr. Crookhall was elected Fleetwood's first representative on the Lancashire County Council in 1906, a position he held until his death. He also gave much time to work on other Committees, e.g. the Fylde Water Board, the Smallpox Hospital Committee, etc., etc.

1886. Was a very wet day. "The tent was considerably shattered by the tempestuous wind, and a number of members felt very insecure under it." Rev. J. Newton, Blackburn, was elected to the Board of Management in place of Very Rev. Dean Gornall, deceased. The younger element at the meeting appear to have taken the tent difficulty none too seriously, for Mr. George Blakoe amused the Company with the song "I'll try to Explain how Matters would Stand if it didn't Rain," whilst Mr. Jones pleasingly rendered "There's Something Wrong about the House." Mr. Kilner sang "Robin and Granny," and Rev. W. Henderson "Johnny Cope," so that despite the weather and the insecurity of the premises, the meeting is described as one of the most successful the club had ever had.

1887. A proposal was made to hold the Annual Meeting in the Public Hall, at Preston, but it was defeated by two votes to six. Rev. T. Walton presided, with Rev. W. A. Burke as vice-chairman. Rev. James Nugent replied for "The Clergy of Lancashire." He had now attended the meeting continuously for many years.

1888. This year's meeting was again a stormy one, but in a different sense to that of 1886. The funds of the Society did not permit any alms being given, but this announcement was not taken in good part, and resulted in "a very lengthy and irregular discussion." The meeting separated about 4 o'clock without a single toast being proposed.

The Board of Management at this time were Rev. T. Walton, W. Gordon, C. J. Gadd, Dean Hines, Dean Newton, and Canon Holden ; with Messrs. Anderton, Pyke, T. N. Thornton, Howarth, Geo. Singleton, Robert Park, the President for the year, and the Secretary.

1889 and 1890. At the Annual Meeting in these years the financial position of the Society was considered, but the difficulties which then existed were solved to the satisfaction of all concerned. Revs. Gordon and Byrne presided in the latter year, when the report stated that there were 2,050 members, 81 members' deaths had occurred, 1,954 Masses had been said, and 1,476 objects of charity relieved with 2s. 6d. each.

MONSIGNOR JAMES NUGENT.
Member B.C.C.S. 1847-1905.
Vice-Chairman, 1868, 1869, 1870.

CHAPTER V.

1891. Rev. W. Gordon, President. At the Annual Meeting, this year, Rev. Byrne, the Vice-President waxed eloquent on the merits of the Broughton Society. If, said he, there was an assemblage in the world worthy of Catholics, it was the one at which they were present that day, they felt that if christianity was a grand, a noble and a divine institution, the Broughton Society did its best to be worthy of it.

In replying to "The Health of the Clergy," Father Nugent, who met with a most cordial reception, said that when they came to go through the history of this country, and when they thought of the friends, who had preceded them, and their apostolic character, they could not but, from time to time, tremble and ask themselves whether they were made of the same mettle, and whether they were doing their work as efficiently with the multiplied opportunities they had, as those did in days gone by, surrounded as they were, not simply by hardships and poverty, but with such a force of public opinion and public prejudice against them. He remembered well the bond of union, that had ever existed since the first day he became a member of that Society in 1847, between the laity and clergy, who had formed part of that Society. (Hear, hear). The clergy had lived in the affections of the people; they heard a great deal now-a-days of the conversion of England. His advice was let the clergy and laity come closer in contact with each other. He knew of no opportunity in the course of the twelve months, which gave the clergy and laity such a chance, as the Broughton Society. He concluded by saying that if England was ever to be Catholic, it would not be brought about through a mighty revolution, achieved by power, so much as if they, both priests and laity, aimed at protecting and building up their own people.

Father Philip Fletcher replied for "The New Members." He spoke of the manner in which the laity and clergy worked together, and of the joy it gave him to come up into Lancashire to see such a meeting as that. He had sometimes been ashamed of being an Englishman, when he looked at the history of the last 300 years; but he looked with pride to the noble little island across the channel—Ireland—and he had often wished he had some Irish blood in his veins. Having alluded to Lancashire Catholicity, and to the sacrifices made in its behalf by Lancashire people, and especially those of the Fylde, Father Fletcher said he admired Lancashire Catholics. They were the true nobility of England; they were all peers; they had the right to be called the flower of the English nation, for they were the descendants of martyrs who laid down their lives for the faith. It was a great revelation to him to come into Lancashire and especially to the Fylde. (Cheers).

1892. The death was recorded of Alderman Howarth, who had long been a member of the Board of Management, being elected in 1876. The President and Vice-President were Rev. W. Gordon and Rev. W. S. Byrne ; the meeting taking place at the Shuttleworth Arms, as had been the case continuously since 1843. In the autumn of that year the venerable Secretary, Mr. John Francis Clarkson, passed to his reward. At a special meeting of the Board it was resolved "that the Society cannot allow this occasion to pass without placing upon record the sincere regret which they feel at the sudden death of their late Secretary, and their appreciation of the faithful and never tiring services rendered by him to the Society during a period of 27 years." Mr. J. F. Clarkson, junr., was appointed pro tem., and in the following year Mr. Thos. Hothersall took on the office of Secretary, which, at the time of writing (1922), he still holds.

1893. There were 335 at the annual dinner at which the new Bishop of Salford, Dr. Bilsborrow, was accorded a great reception. For many years he had filled the post of Vice-Chairman at the Society's meetings, and was felt by all to be a genuine "Broughton Clubber."

1894. A new Board of Management was appointed as follows :—Right Rev. Mgr. Gadd, Very Rev. Provost Hines, Canon Walmesley, Dean Newton, Revs. Gordon and Bennett ; with Messrs. W. F. Anderton, E. Pyke, T. N. Thornton, G. Singleton, J. Crookhall, M. J. Yates ; whilst T. Hothersall was appointed Secretary. The New Members, during the year, numbered 90 ; there had been 85 deaths ; 1,518 poor persons had been relieved with 3s. 6d. each ; and 2,342 Masses has been offered for the living and deceased members.

1895. 400 members attended the meeting. Rev. W. Gordon was Chairman, and Dr. De Splenter, of Manchester, Vice-Chairman. The former being supported on his right by Right Rev. Dr. Whiteside, the newly consecrated Bishop of Liverpool.

1896 and 1897. As the Annual Meeting, Canon Gordon, of Birkdale, occupied the chair, and Canon Richardson, of Manchester, the vice-chair. The Society now had over 2,000 members. During the year they had lost 81 by death, whilst 1,459 poor persons had been relieved with 3s. 6d. each, and 110 new members had been enrolled. Canon Richardson, Father O'Reilly, Fernyhalgh; Messrs. A. Carus, R. Holden, and W. Fitzherbert Brockholes, were elected to the Board of Management.

1898 and 1899. Canon Gordon, Chairman, and Canon Richardson, Vice-Chairman. The day is recorded as being very wet and probably this in part at least, accounted for the offer made by one of the members to subscribe £150 towards the erection of a room for the Annual Meeting, but the members present did not favour the proposal. At this meeting of the Board it was suggested by Canon Gordon that when a member dies, notice of such death be sent to the churches in the neighbourhood where the death occurred, recommending the deceased member to the prayers of the Faithful. This practice has been faithfully carried out, and has proved a great bond of union between the parishes most closely identified with the Society.

RIGHT REV. BISHOP BILSBORROW.

Member of Council 1876-1892.

Bishop of Salford 1892-1903.

the latter year, for the first time wore the handsome medallion and chain of office, given by Mr. R. Holden, Blackburn.

1903. Canon Cosgrave and Canon Corbishley, with Mr. T. Finch, were elected to the Board of Management.

1904. Canon Gordon occupied the chair, supported by Dr. Brindle, Bishop of Nottingham ; Canon Richardson was Vice.

1905. At the meeting of the Board it was agreed that the musical programme be left in the hands of Mr. W. F. Anderton, and he was instructed to have printed the song " The Pope," and also " When our Old Catholic Fathers Lived, &c." This latter song was again rendered by Mr. Crookhall, other items being given by Mr. Hague and Mr. Blackoe. Father O'Reilly, Fernyhalgh, presided, supported by the Bishop of Liverpool and Canon Richardson, was Vice-Chairman.

1906. This year besides the usual Alms of 3s., the sum of £30 was given to three institutions, The Annual Meeting was a great success. Canon O'Reilly presided, supported by the Bishop of Liverpool on his right, and R. R. Dr. Hedley, Bishop of Newport, on his left. There were 450 at dinner. Canon Richardson gave the toast of the day : " Success to the Broughton C.C. Society," and laid before the meeting the resolution passed by the Board of Management, as follows : " The Members of the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society, representing 2,000 members, a large proportion of whom belong to the farming class in Lancashire, hereby record their strong protest against any attempt which will lessen the Catholicity of their Schools." This resolution was passed with great enthusiasm, and was followed by the Broughton Club Song—so designated for the first time.

1907. At the meeting of the Board of Management Mr. Jackson, the last year's President, read the letters he had received in reply to the Resolution of the previous year "protesting against the Education Bill." The letters were from the Prime Minister and Mr. Birrell (at that time Minister of Education); Mr. Harold Cox, and Mr. John T. Macpherson, M.P. for Preston. It was resolved that a record of these be placed in the Minutes of the Board.

The dinner continued to be held at the Shuttleworth Arms; Dean O'Reilly and Canon Richardson presiding, as also in 1908.

1909. The Board of Management now consisted of Canon Gordon, Birkdale; Canon Richardson, Manchester; Canon Cosgrave, Preston; Dean O'Reilly, Lytham; Canon Lonsdale, Blackburn; Rev. H. Holden, Claughton; with Messrs. Thornton, Anderton, Crookhall, Carus, Holden, and Finch. This year there had been 91 deaths in the Society, 2,531 Masses had been said, and 1,717 poor relieved with 3s. each.

1910. Canon Cosgrave, of Preston, and Canon Lonsdale, of Blackburn, occupied the chair and vice-chair. The former being supported by R. R. Dr. Singleton, Bishop of Shrewsbury. 300 members were present.

The death of Canon Richardson was recorded ; since 1896 he had been Vice-Chairman of the meetings, and also a member of the Board of Management.

1911. Dr. Turner, Bishop of Galloway, was present at the dinner and replied for the Hierarchy. Canon Lonsdale, the Vice-Chairman, proposed "Success to the Broughton Charitable Society." He assured the members that the Society had never been in a better condition during the whole of its existence. Mr. Crookall gave the Broughton Song, after which Father Bridges the oldest member of the Society responded. Father Day, S.J., proposed the health of the President, and Mr. Thornton, in reply, said that he was proud to state he had held the same position in 1871, that is 40 years ago. He had entered the Society in 1859, had been on the Board of Management since 1876, and had that year entered as a member his little grandson, Thomas Nicholas George Thornton, aged two weeks. For many years he audited the accounts, and took a most active part in the concerns of the Society. This year £50 was given in alms. The dinner was held at the Shuttleworth Arms, 373 taking part. In the previous year 2,081 Masses had been offered for the living and deceased members, and 1,717 poor persons had been relieved with the sum of 3s. each.

1912. Mr. Stringfellow, of St. Helens, was elected to the Board, in the place of the late Mr. T. N. Thornton, and the Minutes record that the Board wish to testify their genuine appreciation of the unsparing time, which Mr. Thornton so generously devoted annually to the audit of the accounts, and to the life-long interest which he took in the general welfare of the Society.

This year there was a change of venue from the Shuttleworth Arms, the meeting being held at the Golden Ball. The weather was perfect ; 418 members being present, including the Archbishop of Liverpool, Bishop Vaughan. Canon Cosgrave was Chairman, and Monsignor Tynan, Vice-Chairman. In proposing "The Hierarchy of England," Mr. Fitzherbert-Brockholes coupled with it the names of the aforesaid Bishops. They were, he said, proud to be able to congratulate their good Bishop, Dr. Whiteside, on being the first Archbishop of the new Archdiocese of Liverpool. He assured his Grace that he had the earnest prayers of everybody in the great responsibility that rested upon him. The Hierarchy was ever having to face difficulties, and amongst those difficulties there was one which stood paramount to any other, and that was the Education question. They had not done with that question yet, and they needed to keep themselves prepared and see that Catholics got justice, when the next Bill was brought in. The laity looked to the Hierarchy to give them the lead in the matter.

In responding to the toast, his Grace, the Archbishop of Liverpool, said that the Hierarchy had a heavy task before it, and it was a pleasure to hear the kindly sentiments expressed at that meeting. The times were the usual times for the church ; they must ever be engaged in fighting for the Faith, Alluding to the proposal for the disestablishment of the Anglican Church in Wales, his Grace said that the question did not trouble Catholics very much, they were simply looking on, as interested spectators. Those Catholics, however, who had studied Cobbett's History of the Reformation, would certainly agree with Mr. Lloyd George's History of the Church in Wales, as given in the House of Commons a few days previously. What they, as Catholics, disliked, was to be told that the Church of England after the Reformation was the same as the Church before the Reformation with its face washed. If that were so, they had washed a good many other features away—in fact, they had washed away its head, which was the Pope of Rome. Personally he would rejoice if the Anglican Church was allowed to retain its endowments, because it was a breakwater upon which greater errors of faith spent themselves. Coming to the subject which touched Catholics more deeply, his Grace said that there was the Education question looming in the back-ground, and they must be prepared to face it sooner or later. It gave promise of being just as great a problem whether touched by the Conservatives or Liberals. Whatever happened, they must not trust to politicians, but to their own strong right arm. (Hear, hear). What form the Bill would take, he did not know, but for them it was always a very serious question. With the increase of Council Schools in England, their rates and taxes would increase ; but what was more important was the fact, that the religion of this country would disappear altogether. In concluding, his Grace said that the cause of Catholic education could well be left in the hands of the Catholic Hierarchy with Cardinal Bourne at the head. Bishop Vaughan also responded to the toast.

In reply to the toast "The Broughton Society," Mr. Crookhall sang the old-time Broughton Club song.

In responding for "The Clergy of Lancashire," Father Wright, S.J., said that the work of the clergy was made easier by the magnificent support and devotion of the laity. If the clergy were not supported by the laity, they would be rendered practically helpless. In some places in the world they found that the laity were not loyal to the clergy, but if ever that state of things came about in Lancashire—he did not think for a moment that it ever would—then that would be the beginning of the downfall of Catholicity in England. If the laity in other parts were as loyal to the clergy, as Lancashire people were, then they need have no fear of any dangers that might confront them. Other toasts included “The President of the Year,” “The Secretary,” “The Chairman,” “Vice-Chairman,” all of which were duly honoured.

1913. The Annual Meeting, attended by 400 clergy and laity, was held at The Golden Ball, Canon Cosgrave being Chairman, and Canon Lonsdale, Vice-Chairman. The report showed the number of members to be over 2,200; 89 deaths had occurred during the year; and 2,523 Masses had been offered for living and deceased members. Bishop Brindle honoured the gathering with his presence. “The Hierarchy of England,” was proposed by Mr. F. N. Blundell, who welcomed the Bishop of Nottingham, as a Lancashire man coming to his own. He was a true example of the Church militant.

His Lordship, Bishop Brindle, in responding, said that Lancashire was the heart of England so far as Catholics were concerned. Touching upon the Education question, he said it was upon the generation that was to come that they had to depend for the upholding of the Catholic faith. When the need came they would stand shoulder to shoulder and fight for the Faith. They must say to the Government, that they must not prevent them from doing what they wanted in their schools or they would rise and oppose them. (Applause). He knew that what he had expressed was the feeling of the whole of the Hierarchy. They had discussed the matter from every point of view, and they had determined what remedy to apply, when the time comes, and neither the Prime Minister, nor anybody else, would be able to take away from them their rights. (Applause).

Canon Lonsdale submitted the toast "The Broughton Society," which, he said, had never been in such a prosperous condition, as it was at present, and there had never been a larger membership than there was then. It was a great pleasure to look round on that splendid gathering, and to bear in mind what the constitution of it really was. Years ago, it could be said, that every member taking part in the Annual Meeting was a farmer, and the Catholic Faith owed a great deal to the farmers of bygone days. The Faith would have died out in Lancashire if it had not been for the sturdy devotion of their Catholic farmers in the days of persecution. The Society had a great historical tradition behind it, showing them the strength of Catholicity in that district, and if there were trouble ahead, the Bishops could rely upon the members of the Broughton Society to do their duty. (Applause). The Board of Management consisted of Canons Cosgrave, Lonsdale, Gordon, Monsignor Tynan ; Dean O'Reilly, and Father Holden ; Messrs. A. Carus, J. Crookall, W. F. Anderton, T. Finch, G. Stringfellow, R. Holden.

1914. The meeting was held at "The Golden Ball," Canon Cosgrave presiding. The large gathering included Dr. Brindle, Bishop of Nottingham ; Dr. Kelly, Bishop of Geraldstown, Australia ; and Alderman McCabe, Lord Mayor of Manchester. Besides the usual alms, £20 was given to four charitable institutions.

1915. At the annual dinner, 367 sat down. Canon Cosgrave in the chair, and Rev. J. Bousfield, of Blackburn, Vice-Chairman, being supported by the Lord Mayor of Manchester, and Alderman Carus, of Darwen.

1916, 1917, and 1918, were in all respects similar to 1915.

1918. The members at the Annual Meeting numbered 550. Rev. J. Brophy was Chairman, and Rev. J. Bousfield, Vice-Chairman. Those present included Bishop Hanlon. The Report of the Secretary, Mr. T. Hothersall, who, this year, celebrated 25 years as Secretary and Treasurer, showed that 249 new members had been enrolled, and there had been 85 deaths. The poor had been relieved by 1,850 donations of 3s. each, whilst 2,436 Masses had been said for living and deceased members.

Rev. Joseph Welsby, S.J., in submitting the toast of "The Hierarchy of England," gave some interesting figures of the progress of Catholicity in England and Wales. There were now, he said, 4,000 priests, 2,000 churches and chapels, 1,200 elementary schools with half a million scholars, and there were 400 secondary schools educating 40,000 Catholic children. These results, he declared, were due to the Hierarchy of England. Bishop Hanlon, in replying, said that the great aim of the Hierarchy was unity. The Catholic Church was united the world over. In his opinion the time was coming—they did not know how far it was—when the great magnificent body of Catholic men in this country, and English speaking countries generally, would be wanted, and it would be the great force of moral influence they could bring to bear that would be the saving power of a distracted country.

“The Secretary,” was proposed by Rev. J. Harris, of Alston Lane. Much of the success of the Society, he said, was due to the indefatigable efforts of Mr. Thomas Hothersall, who, that year, completed his 25th year of office.

1922. The Report for this year is here inserted, partly because the meeting passed all previous records, and also because it was so typical of the spirit of the Society.

Indeed, no less than 680 Members sat down to dinner, which was served in a very fine marquee, especially hired by the Contractors. Though the numbers were so great there was ample room, the glorious weather contributing very largely to the success of the meeting. Regarding the waitors at table—waitresses we should say—many of those present remembered with regret the good old days when the country lads did all the waiting, their broad thumbs often deep inserted in the dishes they offered, and their hearty Lancashire

“ Mr. Walmesley (Bartle Hall), toasting the Clergy of Lancashire, quoted the phrase : ‘ England, the best Country in the World ; and Lancashire, the best County ; ’ added ‘ and its Clergy the best Clergy ; ’ for in the dioceses of Liverpool and Salford there was between the clergy and laity, the closest bond of personal friendship.

“ Father Matthews, O.S.B. (Headmaster of Ampleforth College), proposed the health of Mr. W. B. Smith (Newsham House), a school-fellow of his. Mr. Smith, in replying, said that he looked upon his year of Presidency of the B.C.C.S. as the greatest honour he had received. He was a Broughton man, not the first of his family to be President, and he trusted, not the last.

“ Father Blundell, O.S.B. (St. Anne’s Edge Hill), toasted the New Members. He was delighted to be entrusted with the work of writing the history of the B.C.C.S., and would do his best to justify the confidence of the meeting. There were historic figures to be dealt with, e.g., Father Barrow, of Claughton—1780-1800, who on returning from his studies in Rome, was press-ganged, served ten years in the navy, escaped, was caught and tried by Court-martial, which acquitted him as he gave no signs of knowing any language but Italian. On hearing the verdict, he calmly asked, “ Che dice ? ” (What does he say ?)

Mr. Blundell (Crosby) replied for the new members, although he himself was a twelve year old member. Every one should be a member. Nowhere else could such a gathering of stalwart Catholics be found. It was not as every one could see, a long-faced club ; nay, as its song and the meeting showed : it was a keeping alive of the idea and spirit of ‘ Merrie England.’

MR. W. F. ANDERTON.
Member B.C.C.S. 1866-1923, etc.
Member of Council 1876-1923.

“ Father Harris (Alston Lane) proposed the health of the Secretary. ‘ It is a great surprise to me,’ he said, ‘ to find myself at table with a live Canon (Myerscough), and decorated with a badge by the Chairman. The Secretary, Tom Hothersall, one of my flock, is the one who works the B.C.C.S., and to him is due the large membership. He didn’t give me anything to say this, it’s quite off my own bat.’ The speaker then told several humorous stories and sat down, but the audience insisted on his telling a few more.”

Thus ended the 135th Meeting of the Broughton Catholic Charitable Society—a Meeting which will long survive in the memory of all who took part in it. Thus also ends the task which the present writer undertook. He has only to thank the many friends who helped to compile the foregoing pages, and finishes his history with the good old Broughton Song, now sung for over 50 years at the Annual Meetings of the Society.

THE “ BROUGHTON CLUB ” SONG.

WHEN OUR OLD CATHOLIC FATHERS.

Now join in hearty chorus while I sing my home’y rhyme,
And you shall hear how things went on in good old Catholic time,
When England was a merry land, her sons were brave and free,
And innocence kept company with mirth and jollity.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass’d a merry time, as ev’ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

For what concerned a man’s belief there needed no great search,
They knew but one high road to Heav’n, and that was thro’ the Church,

A Church that priz’d the humble man, and held him full as dear,
As those of high and noble blood with all their costly gear.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass’d a happy time as ev’ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

Then ev'ry man profess'd himself the Church's faithful Son,
And fearlessly she taught them all their duties ev'ry one,
With tender hearts for Brethren poor, with free and open hand,
A noble and a frank respect for the Gentry of the Land.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass'd a merry time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

They knelt beneath the self-same roof and said the self-same prayer,

And all alike, both rich and poor, could meet as Brothers there,
For ev'ry place was free to all of high or low degree,
They felt at home as children do around their Mother's knee.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass'd a loving time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

And when they heard the " Angelus Bell " ring over hill and dale,
The Blacksmith stopp'd his hammer and the Thresher stopp'd his flail,

They doff'd their caps and cross'd their breasts with meek and pious care,

And never thought a moment lost when spent in fervent prayer.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass'd a godly time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

Full well the homeless wand'rer knew he had not long to wait,
If he could but contrive to reach the nearest Convent gate ;
The Trav'ler worn was welcom'd there with kindly Christian glee,
And cheerful Monks performed the rites of hospitality.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass'd a generous time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

They lov'd their Pope, they lov'd their King, they lov'd their freedom too,

Their hands were quick for action and their hearts were staunch and true,

They dearly lov'd their Merry Land, its Customs and its Laws, Right glad to fight for England's Flag and bleed for England's cause.

CHORUS :

And thus they pass'd a glorious time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.

Then happy both for high and low shall be the moment when,
We see in this our Merry Land those bright days come again ;
And if we strive to live the lives our Fathers lived of yore,
Old England once again may be what England was before.

CHORUS :

Oh ! then we'll pass a merry time as ev'ry one may know,
When our old Catholic Fathers lived a long time ago.
